Philadelphia (N. L.) 9; PHILADELPHIA (N. L.) 8.

PHILADELPHIA, April 30.—The New York (N. L.) Club defeated the Philadelphians here today before a crowd of 3,562. The crowd was distinctly a grand stand one. The bright bonnets of the ladies and the stylish suits of the Quaker City's "400" made it present a pretty sight. The bleachers were pretty bare. Clark, Murphy, Welch, Horning, Ternan, Burke, and Alton got lots of applause. Nutrie's boys won because they hit Anderson very hard and made their hits at times when the Philadelphians had made errors. Day was placed in the box in the sixth, and although this is his first game this year he did well. He seemed steadier than when he was a fresh arrival from the Cape May last fall. He did not use his famous "drop" very much, and never when Clements was under the bat.

Before the game Capt. Glasscock said: "Michael will hit here to-day." Michael did not exactly know, but he predicted their kind of his curves from being concentrated, and may be his outfields did not give him support. The first scoring was done by the New Yorks. It was in the second inning, and after two hands were out, and Denny on first, Murphy drove a two-bagger into right center, and Denny scored. Welch hit a hot one at Mayer, the rumbler, and Welch reached at first. Denny hit a single, and Welch reached at second. Denny scored. The first run was scored.

Horning went out from third to first. A base on balls and a steal by Hamilton and Thompson's single hit Philadelphia a run in the fifth. In the fifth, hits by Bassett and Denny, and a sacrifice by Esterbrook, a fumble by McElroy, and a dropped fly by Hamilton, all in the same inning, brought the score up to six. In their half of the ninth, hits by Day and two-baggers by Burke, Hamilton, and Thompson gave the Philadelphians two more to make eight. The Philadelphians had three runs, and the New Yorks still were in the game.

Particulars.—April 30.—The New York (N. L.) Club defeated the Philadelphia League game at to-day's Philadelphia Player's League game registered 17,162 most prominent city and State officials were in attendance. The game was a perfect fielding, a result perfect fielding was impossible. Philadelphia batted well, and the New Yorks batted well. The first two hands were out, and Denny on first. Murphy drove a two-bagger into right center, and Denny scored. Welch hit a hot one at Mayer, the rumbler, and Welch reached at second. Denny hit a single, and Welch reached at second. Denny scored. The first run was scored.

The game was over. The New Yorks were thoroughly in it. The
